The Senate Committee who were directed to inquire whether the Public Printer had charged more for the Senate printing for the present session than was warranted by the agreement between him and the Committee on Printing, reported last Monday that having examined a sufficient number of vouchers to serve as a basis of investigation, they concluded the basis of investigation, they concluded the Printer had charged no more than his contract warranted.

THE resignation of Mr. GEO. W. CUR-TIS, as a member of the Civil Service Advisory Board, has been followed by that of Messrs. Medill & Cattell. It is believed in Washington the President will fill up the Board by new appointments. That would seem to be a superfluous proceeding. Any further pretence at reforming visory Board, has been followed by that ing. Any further pretence at reforming the civil service, after such appointments

Mesars. Summers, Walker and one or wo others simultaneously objected to the making of the report.

The arrest of Mrs. Myrrs in New York, in connection with the Goodnich murder, reveals to what destitution the working women of that city are reduced. Three to four dollars per week were the wages she received to support hersell, child and others, and yet she was pronounced by her employer to be the best workers he had. Men receive as much in one day, and yet threaten to strike for workers he had. Men receive as much in one day, and yet threaten to strike for more pay! Such a state of things leads to great demoralization.

ORGANIC WBAKNESS

Immediately Cured and Full Vigor restored. This distressing Affection, which renders Life miserable and Marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgence. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procereation is lost soomer by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent. Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and desiredity symptoms of both body and mind arise.
